Enclosure No.

His docket No 298 dated 26th August 1902 calling for certain details regarding the occupation of Government Chavadi at Hiriyur by the Well Maisby and the Sheikdar

With reference to the above has the honor to state that on account of the unhealthiness of the New Hiriyur Town, most of the inhabitants left it and occupied houses in the new extension opposite to the old town. As there were not sufficient number of houses in the Extension, the Well Maisby and the Sheikdar have occupied a portion of the Government Chavadi referred to Such occupation will only be temporary until they could obtain houses either in the old town or in the Extension. A rent of Eight annas per month may be levied from each of these Officials

Deputy Commissioner,
Chittagong Division.
